English at International House

300 Alexander Avenue, Durham, NC 27705  919.684.3585

English Conversation Club.
Mondays 5:15pm – 6:15pm (during the academic year)
International House provides a casual, small-group setting in which all members of the Duke community (students, scholars, spouses, and staff) can practice conversational English with the help of native English speakers. Questions? Email ihouse@duke.edu

Spouses Group English Hour.
Fridays 11:30am – 12:30pm @ IHouse*
An informal English Hour that meets Fridays during the academic year at International House. Contact Joanne Napoli at joanne2950@gmail.com for more information. *Classes, times and locations are subject to change without notice. Contact Joanne for updated info.

Duke Language Partners Program.
A unique program that pairs people based on their language exchange interest. Typically, between native English speakers and speakers of other languages, but we pair up other languages when possible! Time, location, and frequency of meetings is left up to you and your partner. https://studentaffairs.duke.edu/ihouse/ihouse-programs#language

English at Duke University

International Conversation Café.
Most Thursdays 12:30 - 1:30 pm during spring and fall semesters in the Bryan Center, West Campus.
Sponsored by Duke Writing Studio and Thompson Writing Program. For native and non-native speakers of English. Join in our conversations about current events, culture, and more. Questions? Email Rene Caputo at r.caputo@duke.edu

English: Private Options

Hire a private tutor. Too expensive? Negotiate a lower price, or find a friend or two to join you and share the cost. See our private tutor list for names of local English language tutors.

Intensive English Language Programs

Chapel Hill:
Global Education Institute
http://www.usgei.org
They offer various English programs ranging from academic, general, to business-focused courses.

English Learning Institute
elinc.edu

CHICLE Language Institute
www.chi-cle.com
Offers classes in a variety of languages. Also offers certified translations and interpretations.

Durham:
Durham Technical Community College, English as a Foreign Language
Academic EFL courses offer students a way to improve their skills in reading and writing in Standard Academic US English. These classes differ from ESL classes. EFL classes focus on academic skills Fees charged.
https://www.durhamtech.edu/cgl/eap.htm

Raleigh:
Intensive English Program (IEP), North Carolina State University
https://iep.oia.ncsu.edu
This is a full-time academic non-credit ESL program. Offered Fall, Spring and Summer.

Summer Institute in English, NCSU
https://www.nccsu.edu/mckimmon/cpe/odp/SIE/Intensive Communicative Instruction & Practice for Beginning to Advanced Levels of English. Course runs for 5 weeks – June to July.

Wake Tech Community College, Academic English Program
http://efl.waketech.edu/index.php
ESL program provides academic English courses for adult non-native English speakers. Assistance with applying for visa to study available

Berlitz Language School http://www.berlitz.us/