2020-2021 Apartments at 300 Swift Avenue Dining Plan Contract

Duke University requires that all undergraduate students residing on campus participate in a dining plan.

TERMS & CONDITIONS:
- This contract is between the individual (living at 300 Swift Apartments) named below (the participant) and Duke Dining.
- The participant may select one of the dining plans listed below (A, B, C, D, E, or J).
- The period of this contract shall be for the semester(s) indicated below. Fall semester contracts are automatically renewed for the spring unless changed or cancelled during the Dining Plan Change Periods listed below.
- The participant will be billed prior to each semester (fall and spring) for the selected dining plan and a $25.00 Dining fee through the University Bursar.
- Food Points will be allocated each semester. Although unused fall Food Points will remain in the account for use during the spring semester, spring semester plans must be purchased in full. Cancellation of the spring plan will result in forfeiture of any unused fall Food Points. Spring semester Food Points will not be available before spring semester begins.
- The participant may add up to $1,500.00 in additional Food Points per semester (in increments of $25.00) to the selected dining plan during the term of the contract. These additional Food Points are charged to the participant’s Bursar account and will be subject to the Refund Policy.
- The participant will have access to the Food Points from August 16, 2020 through 11:59pm on May 9, 2021.
- Dining Administration can change the terms and conditions of this contract with 30 days’ notice.

BASIC INFORMATION:
- The selected dining plan is non-transferable, either in part or whole.
- The participant must present his/her DukeCard to the cashier at the time of purchase.
- Account statements can be accessed online at dukecard.duke.edu. You can view detailed information for your current period and statements for the past six months. Questions concerning transaction records or the status of an account should be referred to the DukeCard Office.
- If the participant does not select a dining plan, Plan A will automatically be assigned for the academic year (no later than August 7, 2020).
- The participant must immediately go online and suspend their card to protect them from unauthorized use if they have misplaced their card or if their card number has been compromised. Duke Dining will not assume responsibility for unauthorized transactions.
- Duke Dining, a department of Student Affairs, reserves the right to determine menus, prices, hours, days of operation, and other operational practices for all Duke Dining affiliated facilities.
- Misuse of the dining plan is subject to the provisions of Duke University Judicial Code.

*Subject to change

*Does not include 7.5% NC sales tax surcharge

All rates are set by Duke Dining Administration and approved by the University Board of Trustees.

The rates above represent the proposed rates for 2020-2021. Current students will receive an email verifying the 2020-2021 rates following approval.

If the participant does not select a dining plan, Plan A will automatically be assigned for the academic year (no later than August 7, 2020).

Dining plans will be taxed at the combined state and Durham county rate of 7.5% (6.75% for students at the Duke Marine Lab in Beaufort).

Your spring semester bill from the Bursar’s office will have a “NC sales tax surcharge” in addition to your chosen plan.
