THE BEAUTIFUL PROJECT
The Beautiful Project creates spaces where Black women and girls can explore, reflect and discover for themselves who they are and how they desire to engage the world around them – a world that sets margins for womanhood on the outer edges of reality. In this workshop, we have designed a series of exercises that encourage participants to rally together as image makers; storytellers who thoughtfully utilize both the camera and the pen. Hear the story of The Beautiful Project and learn how your story, your memories, can spark a movement. Lunch will be served.
Facilitators: Jamaica Gilmore and Pam Thompson
Date: October 3 / 10am – 2pm
Location: DUCWC
