Congratulations to the newest members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Rissa Jones, Yvette Vasquez, Noelle Cunningham and Nichole Ogojiaku!!
On Friday, February 8th, Iota Mu hosted a classic program: Timeless Service: Valentine’s Edition. They partnered with A Helping Hand organization to touch the lives of homebound individuals who might have felt a little lonely on Valentine’s Day. We created cards that will be delivered to Senior citizens and disabled adults in the Triangle Area.

During the month of February, Iota Mu ran a social media campaign via Facebook and Twitter about important Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorors in Black History. The Campaign saw a lot of success and featured prominent and influential women such as Mae C. Jemison, Maya Angelou, Coretta Scott King, and founder Lucy Diggs Slowe.

On March 7th, Iota Mu volunteered at the Durham Convention Center for the 7th Annual Empty Bowls Event. This event directly benefits the Urban Ministries Community Cafe. Their role was in helping to execute the event which allowed participants to sample soup and vote for their favorite.
The Iota Xi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi ended “Kappa Week” with their 34th Annual Corey T. Williams Ball. Proceeds from the Ball and week were donated to Child Spring International, an organization that ensures medical care for needy children in developing countries.
Omicron Nu and Iota Xi went to Merrick Moore Elementary School to mentor and have lunch with some of the fourth and fifth graders.
