Congratulations to the newest members of the Kappa Omicron Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Teddy Okechukwu & Marcus Benning!!
Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated

On November 7th, Iota Mu hosted AKAnomics, which was an informational forum about budgeting and the 21st century college student. We presented Duke resources and online resources for students to start using money more wisely.

On November 17th, IM teamed up with Zeta Tau Alpha and Alpha Delta Pi to win first place in the Inter-Greek Council’s Blaze the Stage Stroll Show benefiting the chapter and a philanthropy of their choice.

On November 30th and December 3rd, IM hosted a donation drive in benefit of Urban Ministries.

IM Aware: Global Poverty took place on December 3rd to inform Duke students about the systemic causes and widespread effects of poverty in the world. A presentation and a movie were shown and a discussion was held afterward.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated collaborated with the Mary Lou Williams Center to host a week-long observance of A Day Without Art, featuring portraits and personal stories of Black people living with HIV and AIDS and celebrating activists who work on behalf of the Black community to fight the disease.

In Reflection of the lives lost in the AIDS pandemic, the MLWC and APhiA sought to wrap all things Black in RED. Thus all boards and art were covered with red ribbon, in hopes to bring attention to the HIV/AIDS epidemic in our Pan-African community.

During the day of November 28, our community was invited to think about the specific impact of HIV/AIDS in the middle of our World AIDS Week.
The Omicron Nu Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated hosted Secrets, Spies and Lies: SGRho Week 2012.

On November 12th, ONu celebrated Sigma Gamma Rho’s 90th Founders Day in the Center for Multicultural Affairs with cake and refreshments.

The week end on November 16th with Case 1922: A Murder Mystery Party. It was a thrilling night of secrecy and adventure in which a murder occurred and the guest solved the case. The guest that solved the case correctly received a $50 cash prize.

The Omicron Nu Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho would like to thank you everyone who attended and supported their week.
