Recruitment/Intake Results from Spring 2010
Formal Recruitment for IFC and Panhel were incredibly successful this year. Panhel had a record number of 432 women registered for recruitment and disseminated 311 bids which were accepted by 304 women. Panhellenic Recruitment took place on January 14,15,16 and 22,23, and concluded with Bid Day on the 24th. Events were held on both East and West Campus with lots of buses in between. Margaret Morrison, Delta Gamma served as Vice President of Recruitment and Membership and Nicole Schneider, Alpha Phi served as Assistant Vice President of Recruitment and Membership. Both ladies did a spectacular job and worked to make recruitment a great success.

Planning for next year has already begun! The dates for 2011 Panhellenic Formal Recruitment are January 14,15,16 and 21,22, and concludes with Bid Day on the 23rd. Laura Krieger, Zeta Tau Alpha and Anita Raheja, Alpha Phi will be filling the roles of VP and AVP of Recruitment & Membership.

The IFC Recruitment Team included Sam Payne (Sigma Nu), Vice President of Recruitment & Pledging, Nihaal Karnik (Sigma Phi Epsilon), Assistant Vice President of Recruitment & Pledging, and Louis Hellman (Pi Kappa Alpha), Assistant Vice President of Recruitment & Pledging. Recruitment took place beginning January 13 and concluding on January 31. 499 students registered to participate in recruitment and 243 men accepted one of the 297 bids offered to join.

Nihaal Karnik, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sam Payne, Sigma Nu, and Andrew Bentley, Pi Kappa Phi will make up the leadership team for the 2010-2011 school year.

NPHC added 22 new members to the council during the 2009-2010 school year. Four of the eight chapters conducted Membership Intake and IGC added 28 new members to the council during the 2009-2010 school year with four out of six chapters holding Intake.

We are always excited to see growth of our chapters!

Duke University Relationship Statement
The Statement of Relationship between Duke University and the Greek community is a collaborative effort between the Duke University Greek Alumni Council (DUGAC) and the presidents of the four governing councils. The document outlines the necessary commitments of individual chapters,

Kappa Phi Lambda Sorority, Incorporated
Kappa Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc., also called KPL, is the newest sorority to join Duke's Inter-Greek Council. KPL was founded on March 9, 1995 at Binghamton University. The sorority is open to women of all nationalities and backgrounds who want to learn about and actively represent Pan-Asian culture. The pillars of KPL are Sisterhood, Service, and Cultural Diversity. The colony at Duke is composed of ten women including Angela Park, Linda Zhang, Lucille Yao, Shengan Xiang, Sophia Chang, Jenny Wang, Annie Chen, Emily Trinh, Meng Cao, and Joanna Zhou who serves as chapter president. On April 22 the ladies hosted a Meet and Greet on the Bryan Center Plaza where they introduced its new members and showcased their official National Stroll. We are proud to have them as a part of the fraternity and sorority life community at Duke. To learn more about Kappa Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc. please visit http://www.kappaphilambda.org/index.shtml.
3rd Annual InterGreek Council Blaze the Stage Stroll Show
Blaze the Stage was the highlight of the fall semester as members of all four governing councils joined together to perform sensational strolls for an energetic audience in Page Auditorium. Winners of this year's show included Kappa Kappa Gamma/Delta Gamma/Omega Phi Beta and Alpha Tau Omega/Lambda Upsilon Lambda. This event has become the Greek collaboration event of the year as an NPHC or IGC chapter is charged with teaching an IFC or Panhel group how to stroll. During the teaching process the students learn about each other and their fraternity/sorority experience. The IGC Stroll Show has led to a greater connection across Greek councils which has increased understanding of the unique Greek experiences of students from different chapters. Blaze the Stage is a Greek community building event and we are proud of the council for its continued successful execution of the show. We are looking forward to next year's show!

Sigma Pi Fraternity
The Interfraternity Council is growing once again. After the successful recolonization of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, SAE, we are excited about the arrival of Sigma Pi in Spring 2011. Sigma Pi was founded in 1897 at Vincennes University under the name of Tau Phi Delta. The fraternity later changed its name in 1984 to The Sigma Phi Fraternity, International. The Ideals of Sigma Pi are as follows: to establish a brotherhood, to establish and maintain an aristocracy of learning, to raise standards of morality and develop character, to diffuse culture and encourage chivalry, and to promote the spirit of civic righteousness and quicken the national conscience. This will be the first time that Sigma Pi has been present on Duke's campus. If you know of a young man at Duke who would be an excellent founding father for the chapter please let us know at greek@studentaffairs.duke.edu. We are excited about the positive contributions that Sigma Pi will provide to the IFC, broader Greek and Duke communities. For more information about Sigma Pi please visit http://www.sigmapi2.org/.
Pi Kappa Phi & Central Campus Apartments
After five years of submitting proposals for a fraternity section Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity will be moving to Central Campus in Fall 2010. As you might know the majority of fraternities have housing sections on Duke's West Campus but as our fraternity community continues to grow the University decided to seek out new fraternity housing alternatives. The men are excited to venture onto unchartered territory and will be joined in this adventure by the 26 women who will be residing in the Panhellenic Apartments (see story below). The men will have 36 beds at 220 Alexander. PiKapp is looking forward to having a place to call their own where they can continue to build community amongst the brothers of the chapter. Pi Kappa Phi rejoined the IFC in 2005 and includes many campus leaders in its membership including Mike Lefevre, Duke Student Government President, Stephen Temple, Campus Council President, Chris Brown, Duke Student Government Vice President for Athletics and Campus Services, Pete Pow-onpongkul, winner of the award for Outstanding Service at the 2010 Order of Omega Greek awards, and Andrew Bentley, who is currently serving as the AVP of Recruitment & Pledging for the Interfraternity Council just to name a few. We hope that alumni will visit the young men at their new home on campus this fall.

Panhellenic Apartments on Central
A first in the Panhellenic Association community is occurring in Fall 2010. For the first time in Duke history members of Panhellenic sororities will have a designated place to live on campus. Alyssa Dack and Casey Miller of Alpha Delta Pi and Pi Beta Phi, respectively, worked quite hard this past year securing housing for 26 ladies on Duke's Central Campus. The two apartment buildings on Alexander Avenue will have two common room areas that will be reservable by all chapters of the Panhellenic Association for smaller meetings and gatherings. The residents representing seven sororities self selected to live in the apartments.
The ladies of Panhel have been discussing space for awhile but Dack and Miller, used time during their final year at Duke to make this discussion a reality. Miller went on to win the Order of Omega President's award for her work and Alyssa Dack the award for Greek Woman of the Year. Both of the ladies were awarded the William J. Griffith Award for contributions to the Duke Community. Neither one of the ladies will ever be able to live in the space but they have certainly created something special that we hope will become a lasting legacy.

This is just one victory in the Panhellenic space race. The sororities also made headway by moving storage from Trent Hall to safer, cleaner, and well-lit Keohane earlier this year. The ladies are hoping to create a Panhellenic Lounge under the direction of Becki Feinglos, Delta Gamma, where members can relax between classes, study, eat lunch with friends, and engage in informal community building with women from all chapters. We are excited about the current developments and look forward to what the women will accomplish in the future.

The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life in collaboration with Alumni Affairs is planning a ribbon cutting and open house for the Panhellenic Apartments. Please look out for more details about this special event.

Panhellenic Association Website and New Crest

Want to know what's going on in the Panhellenic Association check out their new website at http://dukegroups.duke.edu/panhel/.

Panhel continues to work on the council's branding and public relations. Christine Hall, Alpha Delta Pi, created a new Duke Panhellenic Association logo that is inclusive of NPC and all nine chapters of Panhel.

Got Juice? Forum on Gossip Websites

Unfortunately, you might have heard of the anonymous gossip website, collegeacb, that is having a large impact on the fraternity and sorority community at Duke and at other institutions across the country.

Duke saw a rapid increase in usage of this site during recruitment season in January. Students posted harsh, inaccurate, and hurtful information about their peers on this site. Panhel, wanting to create a space for people to talk about their feelings in connection with the website as well as to offer resources for people who needed help in combating the website set up a forum called "Got Juice?" and co-sponsored the event with the Duke Honor Council, IGC, NPHC, and IFC. The forum included speakers from Duke including Gary Glass from CAPS, Marty Liccardo, formerly of the Women's Center, and Professor of Law Michael Newcity from Duke University.

The forum was very well attended and students spoke up about how the site has made them feel about themselves and about being a member of the Duke community. The professor helped students understand the site from a legal perspective and addressed the reasons that shutting down such a site or pursuing legal action against the site would not yield favorable results in the vast majority of cases. Because legal recourse is not often successful it was great to have a perspective from the Women's Center and CAPS to help students figure out other ways to organize and fight against the website.

NPHC Week 2009
NPHC began the year with it's annual NPHC Week which was kicked off by the NPHC Homecoming Stepshow in Page Auditorium. The winners of the show included Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. The Zetas took us to space and the Alphas took us to school as they performed for an always enthusiastic crowd. The week went on to include Black Greek 101, Black Women's and for the first time Black Men's Gathering, a Bone Marrow Drive on the Plaza, and a NPHC Faculty/Staff/Student Mixer in the Mary Lou Williams Center for Black Culture.

Don't miss the 2010 NPHC Homecoming Stepshow on Friday, September 24 (http://homecoming.dukealumni.com) in Page Auditorium!

NPHC Triangle Leadership Symposium
Later in the semester Duke's NPHC took part in a first-time event with NPHC members from North Carolina State University, North Carolina Central University, and University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill when Robert Page, University of Kansas, facilitated the first NPHC Triangle Leadership Symposium at UNC-CH on October 17. The students worked with their fellow NPHC members to address pressing issues within the NPHC community including the perils of hazing, the importance of knowing and understanding NPHC history, academics, intergroup dynamics, and the element of race and the role it plays in NPHC organizations.

Order of Omega
The Order of Omega is our Greek honor society. Juniors and seniors are selected during the fall and sophomores and juniors during the spring semester based on their academics (minimum 3.3 GPA) as well as their involvement in the Duke, Durham, and Greek communities. Applicants also participate in an interview to gain membership in the organization. The Order of Omega held great events this year including two dinner discussions with Dean of Students Sue Wasiolek and Dean of Undergraduate Education, Steve Nowicki and David Mainella, Sigma Nu advisor, and Gerald Wilson, Senior Associate Dean of Trinity College and Pre-Law advisor. The Order also held the 3rd Annual GreekBowl during Greek Weekend at the Armadillo Grille and the 8th Annual Order of Omega Greek Awards.

Order of Omega Greek Awards
The 8th Annual Order of Omega Greek Awards took place on April 26th in the Bryan Center. The event was well attended this year by members of all four governing councils as well as a wide variety of Duke staff members. Dinner, as tradition, was delicious Greek food catered by Spartacus Restaurant and there was an entertaining performance by Inside Joke. The Order tried something new this year and invited staff members to serve as guest presenters. Among the presenters were Dean of Students Sue Wasiolek, Janie Long, Director of the Center for LGBT Life, Chandra Guinn, Director of the Mary Lou Williams Center for Black Culture, Todd Adams, former Director of Fraternity & Sorority Life and current Director of New Student & Family Programs, Michael Gustafson who serves as a Professor of Engineering and is also an honorary member of Order of Omega, Zoila Airall, Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs, and many more. Lucky students walked away with a door prize including gift cards from, Chipotle, Noodles &Co. and the Duke Store. The Order experienced record nominations this year and had an extremely challenging task in selecting this year’s recipients. The awards presented honored the chapters and individuals who excelled in the areas of leadership, academics, philanthropy, programming, and service. The Order of Omega did an incredible job with this event especially Jessica Fay (Alpha Delta Pi) and Natalie Como (Kappa Alpha Theta) who served as the Vice President and Assistant Vice President at Large for the Order during the 2009-2010 school year. The ladies also had fantastic assistance from their committee and the Order Executive Board including the president, Zach Lerner (Alpha Tau Omega), Ryan Steiger (Zeta Tau Alpha), Joan Soskin (Kappa Kappa Gamma), Olivia Patterson (Pi Beta Phi), Jake Moroshek (Phi Delta Theta), and Chris Demarkarian (Delta Tau Delta), recently elected Order of Omega president for the 2010-2011 school year. The contributions of the students listed above and the winners are examples of why Greek Life at Duke is both possible and exceptional. Congratulations to all the winners and nominees! We look forward to your continued contributions to the Duke, Durham, and Greek communities.

Duke Greek Emerging Leaders

Duke Greek Emerging Leaders (DGEL) serves as the premiere leadership development program for fraternity and sorority members on Duke’s campus. The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life seeks diverse and dynamic sophomores and juniors representing all four Greek governing councils to serve as Emerging Leaders. Students attend six educational sessions throughout the fall semester with the focus of leading positive change in the fraternity and sorority life community. The graduating Fall 2009 cohort of Emerging Leaders included 28 phenomenal students who have gone on to become chapter presidents, chapter and council executive officers, and members of Order of Omega. Nominations for new Emerging Leaders are requested during the spring semester. New Emerging Leaders have been selected for Fall 2010. Please check out our website to see the 32 members of the Fall 2010 cohort. We are looking forward to a phenomenal semester!

What can alumni do?
List of ways that alumni can be helpful to their undergraduate chapter.
1. Serve as an alumni advisor if you live in the area.
2. Visit chapter members during Homecoming and Alumni Reunion Weekends.
3. Offer your expertise to students by way of networking and speaking about your professional/educational experiences at a chapter/council program.
4. Internships available? Please send your information to your chapter members. Contact us for contact information.
5. Looking for your chapter's alumni relations chair? Contact our office and we'll be happy to provide you with their name and email address.
6. If you've stayed involved with your fraternity/sorority as an alumni please provide the benefits of that experience with your undergraduate chapter members. Reassure them that there is involvement post graduation.
